Refugee Resettlement

98 refugees came to Amarillo in 2020. We are helping them to get educated, employed and become citizens!

Key Highlights

We did not stop our services to those in need in 2020, in fact we opened the food pantry to anyone adversely affected by the pandemic and continue to do so in 2021!

*We count the people who receive food just one time even if they come each month they are counted as 1.

 Due to COVID the classrooms did not resume until the fall but learning continued with individual units.
